The Child Marriage Restraint Act.

I am directed to refer to the Child Marriage Restraint Act, 1928 (XIX of 1929), which was published in the Gazette of India Part IV, dated the 5th October 1929. The act applies to all classes of people throughout British India. It comes into force on the first day of April, 1930, and in view of the nature of its provisions it is in the opinion of the Government of India desirable that they should be made widely known as early as possible among all classes and communities. The necessity of such publicity has been strongly emphasized during the course of the debates on the Bill in the Indian legislature vide page 1243 of the Legislative Assembly debates of the 23rd September 1929, and pages 342 and 417-420 of the Council of State debates of the 27th and 28th September 1929. The Government of India would be glad if the local Government / you could take suitable steps to this end without delay. In this connection I am to invite attention to paragraphs 330 to 336 of the report of the Age of Consent Committee in which they discuss various suggestions for making widely known the provisions of the Marriage Law, and on which the local Government / you have been consulted in the Home Department letter No.F.593/29, dated the 27th August 1929.

Copy of a letter No. F.570/29-Judicial, dated New Delhi, the 1st November 1929, from the Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, to all local Governments and Administrations (including Baluchistan and Ajmer-Merwara).

The Child Marriage Restraint Act.

With reference to the Home Department letter No. F.570/29, dated the 15th October 1929, on the above subject, I am directed to forward for information and for such action as ~~the Governor in Council considers~~ you consider desirable an extract from a letter from Rai Sahib Harbilas Sarda, M.L.A., dated the 26th October 1929, in which he suggests measures for giving publicity to the Child Marriage Restraint Act.

Extract from a letter from Rai Sahib Harbilas Sarda, M.L.A. dated the 26th October 192

In order to give the public a correct idea of what the law is, how they will be affected by it, and why Government supported the legislation, it would be necessary -

(1) to print large posters in Hindi and Urdu giving the gist of the law and other necessary information and have them put up at every post office, school house, court-house, tehsil and revenue office, patwarkhanas, hatais, chowpars, and other prominent places in every village in Ajmer Merwara,

(2) to print and distribute notices and hand bills containing the principal provisions of the Child Marriage Law in the different vernaculars of the province and distribute them broadcast in the provinces,

(3) to write articles and notes on the subject and get them published in the newspapers and journals of the province,

(4) to engage two or three persons to go into the villages and explain to the illiterate people the provision of the law and the position of Government in connection with it,

(5) to have it proclaimed in all important towns and villages of Ajmer Merwara that the Child Marriage Law come into force on 1st April, 1930.
